The New Men's Shop

G STREET-TWO DOORS EAST OF ELEVENTH.

Wiping dollars off prices-ending the annual between-seasons' sale.

$25 Suits

included in the lots bunched at $13.25

$1.00 to $2 Shirts . . . . . 95c $1.00 Neckwear for . . . . 69c 50c Neckwear for ..... 25c 25c Socks, 6 pairs .... $1.38 50c 'Varsity' Underwear . 39c $2 'Varsity' Union Suits . $1.10

$1.50 Paiamas, madras. . 95c $2.50 Pajamas, pongee, $1.50 $4.50 Pajamas, silk . . . $2.95 $5.00 Bath Robes . . . $3.50 $1.50 Cape Gloves....$1.15 Ending between-seasons' sale.

THE PALAIS ROYAL

BENSON RESPONSIBLE FOR AERO SLASHING

Advisor to Daniels Shoulders Reduction in Proposed Aviation Allowance to $2,000,000.

Rear Admiral W S. Benson, chief of naval operations, Secretary Danleis' chief assistant, shouldered the responsi-bility for the slashing of estimates for the improvement of aeronautical corps of navy from $13,000,000 to $2,000,000 be-the House Naval Affairs Commit-e yesterday. When the question of naval preparedness was under consideration at the Navy Department, Captain Mark L. Bristol, director of the office of naval aero-nautics, proposed an expenditure of $13,000,000 to bring the aeronautical branch p to an adequate basis.

"As an adviser to the Secretary of the avy," Admiral Benson said, "I con-der it my duty to consider the whole old. In considering the question of aditional appropriations. I think we should determine on a line of policy and get a standard type of aeroplane. If it should become necessary to prepare quickly for war. Congress would have to be called and it would be in session to give us whatever money may be necessary. In-fluenced by that idea, my advice to the secretary has been shaped along these secretary has been shaped along these lines. If I am wrong, I am prepared he tried to enter. to take the consequences. This advice as to air craft was made upon my own study and thought, and not upon any suggestion from the general board."

Dwight Elmendorf Gives Interest-

the National heater yesterday after-the National Theater yesterday after-Simplon Pass, with a last view at dis-tant Switzerland and was concluded in ancient Rome.

Much of the time of the imaginary tour was spent among the picturesque lakes of Lugano, Maggiore, and Como, where were visited many villas. At Milan, the great cathedral was pictured with splendid effect. Mr. Elmendorf selected for reproduction a few gems of the Brera Gallery, and he made a remarkable reproduction, in spite of its very dilapidated state, of Leonardo da Vinci's "Last Supper."

da Vinci's "Last Supper."

After a hasty inspection of the leaning tower of Pisa and the quaint cloisters of the cathedral, Rome was reached. Modern Rome did not detain the lecturer long, for it was ancient Rome, which offered great opportunities for the camera. Splendid pictures were shown of the Roman Forum and many shrines along the Applan Way.

Mr. Elmendorf concludes his series with "Southern Italy and Sicily" on Thursday afternoon, March 30.

"Central America" His Theme The sphere of women and social cussubject of a lecture last night by Harry O. Sandberg, of the Pan-American Union, at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Adas Israel Congregation. The speaker narrated many of his personal experiences during his recent tour through these countries and former the subject of the second triangle and triangle and the second triangle and tr these countries, and referred to the countries as lands of sunshine and ora Hemler was awarded a verdict for $2,500 yesterday in District Supreme Court against the Potomac Electric Power Company and the District of Columbia, for an injury sustained when she twisted her ankle in stepping into a gas box in 1914. She made the Washing-ton Gas Light Company a defendant, but Justice Gould ruled that that company was free from blame. Attorneys W. G. Gardiner and L. L. Hamby represented the plaintiff.

At least 100 species of oysters are known to scientists

District Courts

emporary and permanent alimony, court costs and counsel fees ried at Glen Echo, Md., on September 2. 1910, and she says they separated on March 29, 1914. He is a clerk in the War Department, drawing a salary of $1,400 a year. The wife says she now receives $30 a month from him. Attorneys Havell a month from nim. Attorneys and Hawkens represent the wife.

he was employed, in a suit filed yester-day against the F. H. Smith Company and their agent. Edward Perry, through Attorneys Ethelbert B. Frey and Edward L. Gies. He asserts he was ejected from the building twice on February 13 when Practically all the estate of Katherine G. Powers, who died on March 2, is bequeathed to her stepdaughter, Christine W. Johnson. It is worth approximately $18,000. The decedent directed that $200 DEPICTS NORTHERN ITALY.

W. Johnson. It is worth approximately 19,000. The decedent directed that 200 should go to the Evergreen cemetery, at Proctor, Vt., where she was buried. The property consists mainly of realty in that town. Attorneys Clephane and Clephane National heater vesterday after.

Johnson, it is worth approximately 19,000. The decedent directed that 200 should go to the Evergreen cemetery, at Proctor, Vt., where she was buried. The property consists mainly of realty in that town. Attorneys Clephane and Clephane filed the petition of Christine W. Johnson, who is named executrix. Johnson, who is named executrix

Basil C. and Annie Linthleum, girl.
Edward T. and Ann E. Thatcher, girl.
William C. and Numie Nichola, boy.
Frank B. and Theresa B. Clark, girl.
Irvin M. and Bertha Wiser, girl.

DEATH RECORD.

WHITE.

WHITE.

William Smith, 71 years, Gardeld Hospital.
Col. Frank Jones, 83, 363 P st. nw.
James A. Lochti, St. Emergency Hospital.
John A. Day, 72, Glesboro, se.
John Deutsch, 21, Georgetown Hospital.
James G. Kennedy, 15, 1356 U st. nw.
Marion Frances Kidwell, 71, 826 Varnum st. nw.
Elisha L. Dawson, 65, 1414 Girard st. ne.
Katherine A. Holt, 43, 133 Elementh st. ne.
Adelaide B. McCarty, 38, Foutanet Courts.
Anna A. Ossire, 72, 2729 Oniario road.
Margaret B. Truman, 53, 1687 Thirty-second st. nw.
Sarah Talbert, 4, Garfield Hospital.
David E. Neitzey, 29, 315 Maryland are, sw.
Rocchette W. Calfee, 63, 1616 Longfellow st. nw.
Malvinia Williams, 83, 296 L st. se.
Cynthia A. Marschalk, 73, 1750 Columbia road.
COLORED.

Frances Lee, 63, 298 Eleventh st. nw.

Sult for an absolute divorce was filed yesterday by Mrs. H. Mallette Sengler against Wirt B. Spangler, who also seeks

Frederick Thompson asks a judgment for $10,000 for being ejected from the Toronto Apartment House, where he says

Practically all the estate of Katherine

BIRTH RECORD.

John C. and Annie C. McKillen, boy.
Robert F. and Bess E. Gibbs, girl.
Sewell M. and Mildred Corbett, boy.
William E. and Lorectia C. Rabenhout,
Morris and Cellia Silverman, girl.
William S. and Cora S. Bradford, boy.
Samuel and Mary Kalin, boy.
Basil C. and Annie Linthleum, girl.
Edward T. and Ann E. Thatcher, still. James A. and Anna M. Hardesty, boy August and Lena M. Voigt, boy. Henry and Minna Fey, girl. COLORED, James S. and Gertrude L. Byrd, boy.

COLORED.
Frances Lee, 63, 228 Eleventh at, nw.
Alfred Martin, 29, Washington Asylum Hospt.
Oliver M. Atwood, 68, 135 T at, nw.
Anna Dorsey, 65, Washington Asylum Hospital.

SOUTHERN ROAD

Executive Presents Medals to 171 Employes Who Work Quarter Century.

HIBERNIANS CELEBRATE

Alexandria Irishmen Dine and Hear Addresses on Eve of St. Patrick's Day.

R. E. Knight & Son, 621-623 King street. Alexandria, Va., March 16 .- One hunred and seventy-one employes of southern Railway Company, representing every department connected with the road, many of whom are veterans in the service, today assembled in Odd Fellows' Hall, where they were presented with handsome bronze medals by Fairfax Harrison, president of the road, in recogniof this city, who has spent fifty-eight consecutive years in the company's servplatform to greet Mr. Hall.

Addressing the men, President Harri

"A railway service involves a duty which is heavier in weight than military service. We want men at all times about it has done so. us with their wits about them."

The speaker said he was proud to be the head of such a body of men. Only one word, he declared, describes the serv-ice, and that is 'loyalty.'" sentiment, and he added that he was giving it out of sentiment, because the men had earned it by the sweat of their brows, and he expressed a wish that they would wear the medals, and to charge the bravest can ween; after their death.

A list of those who received medals follows: T. A. Ayre, C. N. Amos, M. M. Albright, C. H. Adams, R. H. Adams, Mrs. J. W. Arrington, W. T. Arnold, J. B. Atwell, S. L. Anderson, D. L. Balthis, R. F. Beckham, P. J. Buckley, G. W. Burke, H. S. Brown, H. Bell, C. M. Bruin, T. C. Bruce, C. E. Balthis, T. R. Bywaters, Thomas Birchhead, J. Thomson Brown, Lee Barnett, F. Bywaters, 1, mpson Brown, 1 Lee Barnett, Bayliss, J.

W. Bowles, J. H. Bayli Colvin, J. E. Curtin, C. H. S. Crockett, J. H. Coler H. S. Crockett, J. H. Coleman, W. T. Carter, G. J. Cox, J. O. Cary, D. Cronin, T. S. Coffin, J. T. Curtin, H. B. Chapman, R. W. Clarke, H. B. Davies, G. W. Dearborn, W. H. Davis, A. W. Dudley, M. P. Davis, W. W. Dornin, W. A. Evans, J. Evans, J. S. Finlay, H. S. Funk, W. L. Finks, R. L. Goods, J. J. Goodwin, M. Grimes, D. Green, A. Garrison, J. E. Genty, J. W. Gribb, D. M. beth, H. C. Linn, O. P. Loving, J. W. Litchfor, G. H. Le Hew, J. H. Lankford, Tim Lane, W. E. Latham, J. J. Magner, J. S. Maxheimer, R. J. Mumford, C. K. Murray, H. N. Moss, M. Murphy, W. E. Midkiff, J. Maley, Dan McCarthy, W. McConchle, D. Munday, R. T. Moriarty, J. E. Murphy, C. R. Miller, A. Miller, Ed Mauck, R. W. Moore, W. H. Marsh, T. F. McDermott, H. Miller, John McCarthy, C. R. Newman, J. B. Nagel, Phil Nolan, E. Norvell, L. C. Nalls, W. A. Nalls, D. O'Neil, D. O'Brien, F. L. Payne, P. B. Peyton, F. B. Peyton, F. L. Payne, C. L. Pingley, J. Penn, N. B. Ponton, George Pearson, C. R. Pollard, John Pundon, A. N. Peyton, R. M. Prettyman, S. Posey, T. B. Rowen, J. G. Runaldue, L. T. Royal, Pat Reilly, Joe Ridenour, General Roy, W. M. Rosson, A. S. Rizey, W. H. Ridenour, W. B. Smithers, C. E. Simpson, C. H. Strobel, C. H. Smither, Louis Smith, R. N. Spencer, M. C. Shankle, M. Spiro, J. Simpson, John Sheehey, R. A. Tucker, Vernon A. Slaughter, D. W. Tuck, J. T. Sharpe, M. F. Ticer, James Thacker, F. M. Tanner, F. A. Warren, H. L. Willis, J. M. Wells, J. M. Wolfe, G. W. Welker, J. F. Watkins, S. Walker and Edward Yates.

Alexandria Division, No. 1, Ancient, Order of Hibernians, celebrated St. Patrick's Day with a banquet tonight in Patrick's Day with a banquet tonight in Lee Camp Hall.

Judge M. J. Doyle, of Washington; Rev. J. J. Kelly, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church; William Desmond, president of the local division, and others made addresses during the evening. M. J. Mc-Farland was toastmaster. A musical program was given by Washington talent. The banquet was served by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary A. O. H. The hall and tables were appropriately decorated for the occassion. Shamrocks just received from County Mayo, Ireland, were worn by the members attending the banquet. Invocation was given by Rev. Louis Smet, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Miss Margaret R. Tomlin, 63, died this Miss Margaret R. Tomiin, 63, died this morning at the home of her nephew, William Woodfield, 315 North Pitt street. The deceased was a daughter of the late Robert Tomlin. Her funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The body of Newton Sayers, 76, who died last night at the Alexandria Hos-pital, was shiped today to Nokesville, Va., for burial. The deceased was a farmer and lived at Nokesville.

At a meeting of the prefects of the Holy Name Society, held at the rectory of St. Mary's Catholic Church last night, plans were discussed for the con treat for men in April, to be held in that

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Mumford 510 Queen street. Services were conducted by Rev. L. M. Ferguson, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and Rev. E. T. Kirkley, pastor of the M. P. Church.

Fo Unifom Divorce Laws. Distinguished churchmen of the United States, who advocate uniform marriage and divorce laws for the entire country, will be given an oppor-tunity to explain their views before the subcommittee of the House Judi-ciary Committee, which has set April 15 as the date for hearing on the Con-stitutional amendment, proposed by Representative Edmonds, of Pennsyl-

FROM ACROSS THE SEA.

Copyright, 1916, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate. Entered at Stationers Hail, London. All rights reserved, including rights of translation. Publication of this article in whole or in part is expressly prohibited except by special arrangement with The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

THE letters from my young girl and so you cannot write to me bereality and a nearness to the war stranger.' which the bare, ugly facts in the With all respect to great-grandrison, president of the road, in recognition of having served the company for a period in excess of twenty-five years.

The oldest man in point of service on this division is G. W. Hall, a blacksmith, home life and surroundings: "I am a Derbyshire mother. She wants me writing to you, Miss Pickford, per-haps out of sheer loneliness because, to be feel with you I be sint into the feel with the per land if I think it is wicked to invent to be frank with you, I have just an Easter rabbit and Santa Claus. because we have met often across the mother and grandmother

"Strange how often in the hour of the moonlight. Only our deepest trials we turn away from our assured friends and seek new, The medal, he said, is an expression of sympathetic shoulders upon which to Here is a little letter from Birmingham, under circumstances where even their children to keep them as heirlooms the bravest can weep: "My father is at the war, Miss Mary, and my At the conclusion of the presentation, President Harrison called on Capt. William B. Smithers, a veteran conductor, of this city, for a valedictory. Capt. Smithers expressed appreciation for the spirit and sentiment which prompted the bestowal of the medials expressed to the sentence of the spirit and sentiment which prompted the bestowal of the medials expressed to the sentence of the spirit and sentiment which prompted the bestowal of the medials expressed to the sentence of the sentence too, had joined the army and were phere of mystery. ordered to the front. I am keeping fully of your plans. the house neat and orderly, waiting and watching for them each day, and who know nothing of professional place and I like the pictures best when they show the high mountains and the beautiful boulevards."

"A nerica is a lovely place," I write back to the little English girl, "for feminine. no titanic machinery of war is dragged across the wide roads here and the little girls who are growing up will never know the unhappiness war is bringing to-their little English cousins." I wonder if the American his picture and the scrap of letter he began to you when I urged him once to see me in person.

always longed for some one in whom and his long serial, "The Diato confide my joys and tribulations, finishing her long serial, "The Diaton I have always felt that this trustmond from the Sky." Jack is in Calitee of my heart's secrets must be fornia with the Selig Moving Picture of my heart's secrets must be fornia with the Selig Moving Picture. tee of my heart's secrets must be fornia with the some one who lives far, far away and ture Co.

friends in England bring more cause they are very strict and would punish me severely if they knew I than a message—they bring smuggled out a letter to a perfect mothers and greataunts, it is not so easy to imagine them in perfect sym A girl from the quaintly named pathy with a twentieth-century girl.

Addressing the men. President Harrison said: "This is one of the most interesting moments of my life. It is a great pleasure to meet the men in the service A total of 1.758 out of 45,000 in the service have served more than twenty-five years, and thirty-four have served more than fifty years. There are 235 negroes in the list.

Indeed, I do believe children should be taught to believe in fairies, because it develops their imagination, and if it were not for Santa Claus what a drab day Christmas would be! Some of the sweetest memories of my childhood are of the fairy lore my mother, and grandwather told me. been to see the young man I am en-gaged to leave for the front. He has cause it develops their imagination, silent screen, would cheer me up, and it has done so.

Industry and grandmother told the solution about the mermaids who lived under the cool, green waves and the elves that danced in the slanting rays of

Answers to Correspondents.

Katie LaB.-Indeed, if I were you, would always tell the truth and take my punishment. If you tell one falsehood, you will find yourself enmeshed in twenty more.

Kenneth C .- I cannot tell you when I will appear again in any theater, as our public appearances are generally bestowal of the medals, saying that such two young brothers, who are only a democratic spirit had never before ex-isted between officials and employes. boys and still children to my mother, great deal of fun to form a secret boys and still children to my mother, great deal of fun to form a secret came to bid her goodbye, for they order, which always lends an atmos-Write me more

> C. Francis-You are right-people praying that when they do return women have no right to criticise or they will bring my father with them. censure them, and I am very glad > > very pretty, as it is so decidedly Father Time out of a score of finger rely upon yourself in the treatment recurring vertigo. It may be, as you

Grace B .- We speak our lines while we are taking pictures the same as actresses and actors do on the stage, because what we say lends expression girls realize just how lovely their to our eyes and lips, but the deaf and dumb people in the audience are the only ones our only brother, who was a musician on the Varmouth and the cause what we say lends expression to our eyes and lips, but the deaf and dumb people in the audience are the only ones who can really hear us across the silent screen. The night sician on the Yarmouth sunk in the Pacific battle, and I am sending you with me, but my mother was there. with me, but my mother was there. I felt very happy that people wanted to write and tell you how much we enjoyed seeing your pictures when they came to London."

"I am writing to you," a little Liverpool girl begins, "because I have always longed for some one in whom and me now, taking a vacation after finishing her long serial "The Discontinuations."

OFFICE FURNITURE DEPT.

We have moved our office furniture department from the second floor, main building, to the first floor, Eleventh street building. Entrance on Eleventh street and F street. Everything for the modern up-to-date office is carried in this depart-

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL 50-inch Flat Top Desk Mahogany, $42.50 | Golden Oak, $29.50

W. B. Moses & Sons

F and Eleventh Street .

PRACTICAL HEALTH TALKS Lillian Whitney. MD (

Dr. Whitney's norman articles on health and beauty subjects in several leading magnaines have been attracting marked attention for a num-her of years. No other writer on similar topics is better equipped for the work, for Dr. Whitney has established an enviable reputation as a agecialist and is endowed with the ability to make herself easily understood by her readers. She will answer all letters relating to her department us tromptly as possible. All letters should be accompanied by a stamped envelope and should be addressed eare of this paper.

THE INDIFFERENT MALE.

weakness, an evidence of vanity, of femininty, and, therefore, to be avoided. Despite this, men are more persistent and consistent seekers of beauty than women. Real beauty parlors for men have always existed. Have we anything to compare with the marvelous "baths" of the ancient Romans, where the senator, the philosopher, the exquisite dandy, daily discoursed in the midst of their particular cliques on matters of special interest to them, while luxuriating in a thousand and one subtle aids and means in the hands of experienced beauty culturists to enhance and preserve their turists to enhance and preserve their and the tensorial artist, who, to meet a up hope praying that when they do return they will bring my father with them. "I think America must be a lovely place and I like the pictures best when they show the high mountains and the beautiful boulevards."

"Anerica is a lovely place," I write "Englishment of the pictures and the beautiful boulevards."

"Anerica is a lovely place," I write "Englishment of fingers, and the tonsorial artist, who, to meet a great demand, has developed into a veritable "beauty doctor" for men: and, lastly, the rest cures, where, under the guidance of a skilled physical culturist, by means of outdoor life, a simple diet, regular hours, etc., men may recuperate their vital forces, regain their figures, their bold upon themselves and cheat the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out their vital forces, regain their figures. The place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of finger the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of the human hand in carrying out the place of the human hand in carrying out t

What are these finger prints of time say, gastric, but I would want a physithat men most dread? Pirst of all, the bald spot, perhaps. An Englishman who recently visited this country observed with amazement the almost universal custom prevailing here of "wearing" the face smoothly shaven, and remarked that the "law of compensation" is also at should be vigorously massaged and the fault, as most of our men show partial following lotion applied: Castor oil, one or extreme baldness by the time they draw includes. reach the age of 40.

Progressive baldness is most difficult to arrest. A beauty parior for men recently established in one of the world's Copyright, 1996.

Wanderlusters Forming Club. Washington's band of wanderlusters

hikes. The first meeting will be held at Northeast Masonic Temple, at so clock tomorrow night. Among the organizers are Miss Monah Hord, John Hardy, and Miss Effic Koontz.

time has been on a throne.

The apparently indifferent male is, in famous centers is always crowded, reality, as eager to preserve his good looks as his seemingly frivolous sister, only he is not so frank in admitting it. The foundation of their method is massage of the scalp. This is the remeay par excellence to keep, first, a healthy weakness, an evidence of vanity, of femulation, and therefore to be avoided.

Hopeless Lupus is a disease of the skin (tuberculosis). There are many No, we have nothing to compare with this today; but in our more strenuous age we have the trainers in physical culture, the Turkish and the Russian baths ture, the Turkish and the Russian baths and the Russian baths.

of camphor, four ounces. This is excellent treatment for intractible

Brown to Discuss Civic Beauty

lusters. The D. A. R. committee on preservation every of historic spots and records cordially inhaving traversed practically every of historic spots and records cordially inch of the ground in and about the city, during the past two years, are forming a permanent social organization, to be known as the Rambiers.

Pastime Club. The organization does not mark the passing of the weekly the passing of the weekly the passing of the weekly the passing will be held thought Museum tomorrow evening. tional Museum tomorrow evening at 8

Hardy, and Miss Effic Koontz.

An additional $10,000 for the maintenance of the Pan-American Union, of which John Barrett is director, was Austria for sixty-seven years, which is allowed by the House Foreign Affairs longer than any other ruler in modern Committee yesterday at the request of Secretary Lansing.

March Weather Dangerous to Health weather is usually a series of rain, wind, hanl and snow storms. Many people who have weathered the storms of the previous months easily succumb to the chilling blasts of March. Statistics show that the mortality rate reaches its highest point in March, due largely to the fact that grip, pneumonia and other pulmonary troubles claim many victims. The system that is well fortified is invariably able to resist and throw off disease germs so they can not take root in Duffy's PURE Malt WHISKEY taken in tablespoon doses in equal amounts of water or milk before meals and on retiring, is excellent in building up the system through its beneficial action on the stomach. The blood is dependent upon the digestive organs and if they do not perform their duties the system becomes run-down and open to attacks of disease germs. Better health awaits those with

'Get Duffy's and Keep Well' Sold in Sealed Bottles Only. Beware of Imitations. Get Duffy's from your local druggist, grocer Note or dealer. $1.00 per bottle. If he cannot supply you, write us. Send for useful household booklet free.

The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

